High School Wrestling Coach Found Guilty of Multiple Child Sexual Abuse Counts

A man who coached wrestling teams at a high school and a Boys and Girls Club was found guilty today of 47 counts for the alleged sexual assaults of nine young athletes, the Los Angeles County District Attorney's Office announced.

Terry Terrell Gillard, 58, of Sylmar was found guilty of 28 felony counts of procuring a child to engage in a lewd act as well as three counts each of lewd act upon a child, lewd act upon a child age 14 or 15 and oral copulation of a person under 18.

Deputy District Attorney Cathy Lee said the jury in case PA088987 also found Gillard guilty of 10 misdemeanor counts of child molestation.

Sentencing is scheduled on June 19 in Department N of the Los Angeles County Superior Court, San Fernando Branch. Gillard faces 82 years in state prison.

According to evidence presented at the seven-week-long trial, the conduct occurred between 1991 and 2017 and involved minors the defendant met through the wrestling team. Gillard was a coach at John H. Francis Polytechnic High School in Sun Valley and the wrestling team at the Boys and Girls Club of San Fernando.

The victims included seven boys and two girls between the ages of 11 and 17, the prosecutor said.

The case was investigated by the Los Angeles Police Department, Juvenile Division.
